Welcome, Friends!

The Friends of the J. Lewis Crozer Library group officially began on September 13th. An impressive number of interested community members attended a panel discussion detailing what a Friends group can accomplish for a library. Several community members have already joined the Friends group, which allows patrons to join at various levels, including a Senior $5 membership, a $25 household/family membership, and a $100 lifetime membership category.

The Friends have scheduled future meetings to begin their work in fundraising for Crozer Library. Would you like to become a Friend? Please call (610) 494-3454, x204 or stop by the library to pick up a Friends membership brochure.

Fall Book & Bake Sale October 22nd

Crozer Library's Fall Book and Bake Sale opens on Saturday, October 22nd from 9am-2pm. All items are $1 or less. Offerings include a great selection of African-American titles and a large number of movies. Sample tasty treats while you do some early holiday shopping. All proceeds directly benefit the library!

Library & Target Team Up for Children

The library recently received a grant of $2,000 from Target®. The grant will be used to promote literacy among the youngest members of the Chester community.

The children's librarian will create a traveling collection of children's board books that will be shared with local day care centers. Look for this project to begin in 2012!

Needle Works in Chester Wins at State Fairs

Needle Works in Chester is a free crochet class that has met at Crozer Library since 2005. Led by Naomi Jay, the group meets in the Community Room each Monday from 6-8pm and welcomes new members. In July, Cathy Draughon, Naomi Jay, Linda Saldana, and teen Amanda Saldana entered items in the Delaware State Fair. Each of the ladies won several ribbons and cash prizes. Naomi Jay, Amanda Saldana, and Linda Saldana also entered the Allentown Fair in August; each lady won at least one ribbon. Congratulations, NWIC!

eReaders and eBooks

On Friday, October 14th from 11am-12pm, you and your ereader are invited to learn how to download free ebooks from the library's website. This training will focus on the Barnes & Noble Nook and the Apple iPad. (The process is similar on other ereaders.) Provided by the Delaware County Library System.
