“Detecting Women” Book Discussion Group

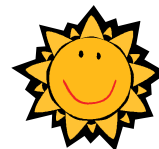

Crozer Library is accepting registrations for the book discussion group, “Detecting Women.” Mr. Alonzo Cavin, Ph.D. from Widener University will lead a book group at Chester Senior Center on Wednesdays, Sept. 17th, Oct. 15th, Nov. 19th, and Dec. 17th from 12:30 to 2:30pm. Participants will discuss popular titles by Agatha Christie, P.D. James, Patricia Cornwell, and Pauline Hopkins (writer of the first African-American mystery). This free program is open to all adults and requires no special knowledge. Participants will receive books to keep. To register, contact Kim Braun at 610-494-3454. “Detecting Women” is part of Read About It!, a book discussion series of the Pennsylvania Humanities Council. The program is supported with federal Library Services and Technology Act funds administered by the Office of Commonwealth Libraries.

2nd Annual Youth Empowerment Day

Back by popular demand, Youth Empowerment Day returns on Saturday, August 9th from 11am to 3pm. This free event will feature speakers, information tables, music, face painting, food, and giveaways. Join us for a great day of fun for the entire family!

Treat Yourself to a Movie

Crozer Library has many popular feature films available in VHS and DVD. Patrons can rent a movie for $1 for three days. Our documentary titles are free for one week! Check out our ever-growing selection.

Drug and Alcohol Prevention

Mr. Devin McDonald, Youth Outreach Counselor with Crozer Keystone Health System, leads a discussion group for youth ages 10 and up. The sessions are held Wednesdays through August 25th at 1pm and provide a safe setting for important youth discussions.
