Youth Empowerment Day

Back by popular demand, Youth Empowerment Day returns on Saturday, August 9th from 11am to 3pm. This free event will feature DJ Master Blaster. There will be activities for youth of all ages: "Little Engine That Could" storytime for children ages 3-6; Junior Workshop for ages 7-12 featuring discussion on Langston Hughes and daring to dream; and a teen workshop for ages 13 and older. Other activities, information tables, and giveaways will take place throughout the day. Free water ice and pretzels will be served. Join us for a day of fun for the entire family!

Summer Reading Closing Event

On Wednesday, June 20th from noon to 2pm, Crozer Library will celebrate children and youth who have participated in the library's "Catch the Reading Bug" summer reading club program.

Summer reading club prizes and awards will be distributed. There will also be face painting, refreshments, and giveaways. All are welcome to celebrate the hard work and dedication of our local youth!

Read About It!

Registrations are being accepted for "Detecting Women," a book group featuring female detective mysteries. The group of adults of all ages will meet at Chester Senior Center on Wednesdays, Sept. 17th, Oct. 15th, Nov. 19th, and Dec. 17th from 12:30-2:30pm. Please call Kim at 610-494-3454 to register and receive your first book!

Sign Language Class

Crozer Library will hold a Beginner's Sign Language class on Saturday, August 16th, from 11:00am. to 12:00pm. The library also has a number of books and videos for those interested in learning sign language.

Teen Dance

Crozer Library is hosting a Teen Etiquette Dance on Friday, August 22nd. This dance is only for teens (13-18) who fully participated in the summer reading club throughout the summer. These teens are invited to this special dance honoring their accomplishments.
