Chester Spotlight's Stefan Roots Donates to Library

Crozer Library expresses its thanks to Mr. Stefan Roots, editor and publisher of the Chester Spotlight newspaper, for his recent donations to the library. Mr. Roots generously supplied a complete Xbox gaming system, several video games, gaming accessories, and a television set to be used during library programming. These donations will be featured on Saturday, November 15th from 1-3:30pm when the library celebrates National Gaming Day with Xbox and computer gaming featuring some friendly competition. Crozer Library greatly appreciates Mr. Roots' continued commitment to Crozer Library and to the Chester community.

Fall for a Book

Join Delaware County in reading The Great Gatsby. Library events include a movie on Sat., Oct. 11th from 1-3:30pm. Enjoy and learn dances from the 1920s on Sat., Nov. 15th from 2-3pm!

October Programming

Crozer Library has a number of programs slated for this month. A Resume Writing Workshop takes place Sat., Oct. 11th, 11am-

12pm. Watch the Great Gatsby movie Sat., Oct. 11th, 1-3:30pm. Bring your prescriptions for a "checkup" Thurs., Oct. 16th, 11am-1pm. Just in time for Halloween, enjoy Local Ghost Stories, Sat., Oct. 18th, 11am-12pm.

Online Computer Database Access

Did you know that your library card comes with great Internet resources? From any computer with Internet access, you can use our online computer databases. Start at www.delcolibraries.org, click "Databases," select "Full List" and then a database. Enter the barcode number from your library card and your last name, and you're on your way to reliable information!

Freedom Walkers

Crozer Library is in search of children and teens to perform in our February 2009 "Freedom Walkers" production, a part of the "We the People" grant recently awarded to the library. Please contact Ms. Logan at 610-494-3454 for details.
