Author Chris Bohjalian To Visit Aston Library

Author Christopher Bohjalian will visit Aston Library at 7:30pm on Wed., Nov. 5th to discuss his books and the influence of The Great Gatsby on his work. Aston Free Library is located at 3270 Concord Road in Aston. Register at www.delcolibraries.org by clicking on "Library Events." You may also call your local library to register. The author visit is sponsored by the Aston, J. Lewis Crozer, Mary M. Campbell, Middletown, and Rachel Kohl Community Libraries. The event is part of the annual "Fall for a Book" celebration sponsored by Delaware County Council with the Delaware County Library System. Join the county in rereading the classic, The Great Gatsby.

1920s Dancing

Travel back in time to the Roaring Twenties on Sat., Nov. 15th from 2-3pm. Enjoy 1920s dances, including the Charleston and Foxtrot. See dance demonstrations and learn a few steps! Featuring dance students from Dance Fusion Performance Center in Brookhaven.

National Gaming Day @ Crozer Library!

You are invited to join Crozer Library in celebrating the first annual National Gaming Day on Sat., Nov. 15th from 1-3:30pm. The library will be full of video, computer, board, and card games for gamers of all ages!

National American Indian Heritage Month

November is National American Indian Heritage Month. Celebrate by checking out our collection of Native American resources and viewing artwork on display. You can use the American Indian History online database at www.delcolibraries.org to find biographies, maps, images, and more.
